Congratulations! On Oct. 6, 2021, the Department of Education announced a change to the Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) program rules for a limited time that allows you to get credit for payments you've made on loans that wouldn't normally qualify for PSLF. As a result of this limited PSLF waiver (StudentAid.gov/pslfwaiver), we conducted another review of your Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) & Temporary Expanded PSLF (TEPSLF) Certification & Application (PSLF Form) and payment history. We have determined that you have successfully made the required 120 monthly payments in order to have all or a portion of your loans listed below forgiven.

Loans Details

Loan Sequence	Loan Program	Disbursement Date	Amount Forgiven (Principal and Interest)	Outstanding Balance
0001	DLUCNS	09/06/2012	120,516.85	$0.00

You have satisfied your obligation and no additional payments are required on these loans.

Will I have to pay income tax on the forgiveness amount? No. According to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), student loan amounts forgiven under PSLF or TEPSLF are not considered income for tax purposes. Please contact the IRS or a tax advisor for more information.
