WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Here are some important points on this PSLF or TEPSLF forgiveness:

- According to the Internal Revenue Service, student loan amounts forgiven under PSLF or TEPSLF are not considered income for federal tax purposes. The discharged loan amount may be considered income for state tax purposes. Please contact your state taxing authority or a tax advisor for more information before you file your state tax returns. Maintain this notification in your personal records.
- Not all your federal student loans may be represented in the table above as you may have begun repaying each loan on a different date or have a different number of qualifying payments. If you have federal student loans that are not included in the table, or your loan still has an outstanding balance, please continue to make payments on them. We encourage you to continue to submit additional PSLF Forms via the PSLF Help Tool at StudentAid.gov/pslf. You can also check your PSLF progress by logging into your account on StudentAid.gov/fsa-id/sign-in/landing.

- We have notified, or will notify, all national credit bureaus of your student loan forgiveness.
- If applicable, we'll process a refund for any payments made towards the loans listed above after the effective date of this forgiveness. Any refund will first be applied to the outstanding balance of any remaining loans. If you do not have any remaining loans the refund will be sent to you directly.

NOTICE: This letter is NOT an attempt to collect a debt or a demand for any payment.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS IF YOU HAVE A BALANCE REMAINING ON A PARTIALLY FORGIVEN LOAN

If a loan still has a balance remaining, that remaining balance is your responsibility until it is repaid, forgiven, or discharged. To find more information about your remaining loans you can log in to your account at StudentAid.gov and view My Aid or visit mohela.studentaid.gov.

Additionally, if you have questions regarding your forgiveness and any remaining loan balances, you may call Federal Student Aid at 1-888-303-7818.
